Social Media Brief

Campaign Overview:

The Painted Lady's social media campaign is designed to increase local brand awareness, showcase the studios artists and custom tattoo work and encourage community engagement. this campaign will highlight the studios friendly-professionalism, creativity and welcoming atmosphere through a mix of educational, promotional and interactive content.

Problems to be Solved:

- Lower awareness of The Painted Lady as its a relatively new business in Bedford (opened on the 28th of October 2025)
- Potential clients feeling nervous about getting their first tattoo (want to build trust through artists introductions)
- Followers viewing posts and stories without interacting (want to increase audience engagement)
- mainly focused on Instagram and Facebook (want to keep consistent across all social media platforms {maybe include TikTok for younger customers})
- Lack of educational content surrounding tattoo care and the tattooing process (want to encourage direct enquiries through social media platforms and display more behind the scenes content)

Key Messages:

- Every tattoo at The Painted Lady is custom designed
- The studio provides a safe, clean and welcoming environment
- Skilled artists work closely with every client to create meaningful artwork
- Tattoos are an investment in personal expression
- booking a consultation and appointments is simple and approachable
